SOUTH INTERLAKE PLANNING

Planning a Project this Construction Season?

Spring and summer are busy seasons for construction, and it's also a time when many are preparing to enjoy the outdoors.

With this in mind, the South Interlake Planning District (SIPD) would like to issue a reminder that Development and Building Permits are required for most types of construction, renovations, and structures (pre-built, site-built, temporary or permanent). These include but are not limited to: Swimming Pools, Hot Tubs, Decks, Sunrooms, Gazebos, Pergolas, Sheds, Fabric Shelters, Interior/Exterior Renovations or Repairs, Solar Panels, Window and Door Installations (structural only), Basement Developments, etc.

Permits help ensure that buildings and structures meet the Manitoba Building Code, which makes things safer for everyone!

If you are unsure whether your project requires a permit, or if you have any questions, please contact the SIPD office at 204-467-5587 and we'd be happy to assist you! More information is also available on our website: www.sipd.ca

Christ the King Ladies host stylish evening

Submitted by Heather Hueging

The anticipation was palpable as fashion enthusiasts gathered at Christ the King Church in Stonewall on June 1 to witness a dazzling ladies' fashion show organized by the Catholic Ladies Group, featuring clothes from Johnson's Fashions and Footwear of Gimli.

Showcasing a stunning array of new clothing and shoes, the event marked a triumphant return from the COVID-19 pandemic, drawing a full house of eager attendees who were treated to an unforgettable evening of fashion, prizes and refreshments.

The show's success was largely attributed to the remarkable volunteer models from Christ the King Church and their friends, who effortlessly displayed the latest trends in ladies fashions.

In the wake of a challenging year, the fashion show provided a much-needed opportunity for the community to come together and celebrate.

The event not only showcased an assortment of clothing and shoes but also presented a host of door prizes and silent auction items. Over 35 silent auction prizes were up for grabs thanks to generous donations, tempting attendees to bid on coveted fashion pieces and accessories, further adding to the evening's allure.

Guests were treated to a delectable spread of dainties, which were made and donated by many of the church members, accompanied by a selection of fine wine, coffee and juices.

Johnson's Fashions and Footwear, collection included elegant dresses and chic ensembles as well as stylish footwear and accessories. Their range catered to various tastes and preferences, ensuring there was something to suit every style sensibility.

June Johnson, the owner of Johnson's Fashions and Footwear, expressed her gratitude to the volunteers and attendees for their overwhelming support.

"We are thrilled to be part of such a remarkable event and witness the return of live fashion shows," she said. "The collaboration with Christ the King Church and the enthusiasm of the models and guests have made this a truly unforgettable experience."

Kiln restoration underway at Stonewall Quarry Park

By Jennifer McFee

The first phase of the kiln restoration project is now underway.

For this “take-down” phase of the project, contractors are about a quarter of the way through the disassembling process of the kiln.

Phase 1 of the project includes the rebuilding of the southern kiln, as well as completion of the engineering work, design and specifications for the repairs for the northern kiln that will be refurbished as part of Phase 2.

Kelly Kimball, Quarry Park and Heritage Arts Centre manager, said they expect the kiln will be fully disassembled by mid-June.

“After that, they will begin preparing the ground and foundation as well as examining the stones to determine how to proceed with the rebuilding process. This project will be going on until approximately November of this year when we hope to have it completed,” she said.

“The Save the Kiln Committee is currently working hard to raise funds for the next steps. The goal is to raise enough funds to complete Phase 2 and 3 next year, which includes the remaining two kilns, landscaping, as well as additional information about the kilns and modern uses of limestone to be added to the Interpretive Centre.”

Anyone interested in volunteering for the initiative can email kelly@stonewall.ca.

Tax cuts need to be a focus of provincial election

By Gage Haubrich is the prairie director for the Canadian Taxpayers Federation

Manitobans need more tax relief. A family of four in Winnipeg making $75,000 a year is paying more provincial taxes in Manitoba than they would be in Saskatchewan, Alberta or British Columbia.

Since the last election in 2019, inflation in Manitoba has gone up 12 per cent. Groceries now cost 18 per cent more and the price of gas is up by more than half.

The upcoming election is a perfect time for all parties to commit to making life more affordable by putting more money back in Manitobans' pockets. What can you expect from four more years of Premier Heather Stefanson? Or four years of newcomer New Democratic Party leader Wab Kinew?

Let's compare the tax-cutting record of both parties. In 2019, the Progressive Conservative government cut the provincial sales tax by one point, lowering it from eight to seven per cent. And in 2020, the government started phasing out education property taxes, which will save the average homeowner $581 this year.

Stefanson's latest budget increased the tax-free portion of Manitobans' income from $10,145 to $15,000. This will save taxpayers up to $524 per year. It will also remove 47,400 low-income taxpayers from having to pay any income tax at all.

The Stefanson government committed to further cut taxes after the election in 2024 by changing the income tax brackets. Under this change, the first $47,000 of your income will be taxed at the lowest rate, compared to the current $36,842. Income between $47,000 and $100,000 will be taxed at the second highest rate compared to $79,625 before. This means that more of taxpayers' income will be taxed at lower rates.

Combined with the change this year, an individual taxpayer will save up to $1,399 in 2024. That's a substantial tax cut. It's enough money to pay for a month of rent or a couple months of groceries.

Greg Selinger, the last NDP premier, was more well-known for raising taxes. In 2012, his government raised the gas tax. While campaigning in 2011, Selinger promised Manitobans he would not raise the provincial sales tax, but, in 2013, he hiked the PST from seven to eight per cent.

The past shows that the PCs have the edge when it comes to a tax-cut track record. Cutting taxes three times in the last seven years is an accomplishment. But an election is just as much about what a party will do as much as it is about what they have done.

Stefanson and the PCs need to follow through on their announced tax cuts. And if the PCs are really serious about affordability, they will cut the gas tax to offset Prime Minister Justin Trudeau's carbon tax hike.

"Manitobans will feel even more of a pinch when they are filling up the tank, buying groceries and heating their homes," Stefanson said on the latest carbon tax hike. The federal carbon tax increases the price you pay at the pump by 14 cents per litre. The Manitoba government also charges a 14 cents per litre gas tax.

Kinew also needs to make bold commitments if he wants the attention of taxpayers. After the budget, Kinew refused to say if an NDP government would keep Stefanson's latest tax cuts. Kinew needs to come clean on what Manitobans can expect if he gets elected.

To the west, the Saskatchewan NDP is calling on the provincial government to cut parts of the PST. Promising a provincial sales or gas tax cut would show Manitobans that Kinew and his party have learned from the mistakes of the past.

Taxpayers are struggling. Politicians are supposed to work for the people. Manitoba politicians need to prove to taxpayers that they can make it a little easier to make ends meet.

Free provincial park access, free family fishing this weekend

Submitted by the Manitoba government

Manitoba families have an extra day to cast a line into their favourite lakes for free during this year's Family Fishing Weekend, June 9 through June 11, Natural Resources and Northern Development Minister Greg Nesbitt announced Tuesday.

This weekend, anglers can reel in their catch of the day across the province without the need for a licence, except in national parks where a federal licence is still required. All other rules and regulations, including size limits, still apply as outlined in the 2023 Manitoba Anglers' Guide, available at www.manitobafisheries.com.

Vehicle permits will not be required to visit provincial parks from June 9 through June 11. However, regular camping fees will still apply at provincial campgrounds.

Park visitors are encouraged to check provincial park conditions as there may be temporary closures or advisories. Before setting up camp, visitors should check for the latest fire restrictions and remember only make fires in approved fire pits.

Nothing is Impossible

It's the first summer in our new home and, like many others right now, we've been busy digging, weeding, planting and sowing seeds. I sure wished there were more trees as they take so long to grow and we have no idea how long we will stay, but the Lord spoke to my heart to settle and just go for it! So we are.

While looking at these majestic skyscrapers, I began to ponder about how everything that this tree is today was already in its tiny little seed form. In Matthew 17:20, Jesus told the disciples, "I tell you the truth, if you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it would move. Nothing would be impossible."

I discovered the word for seed in Greek is "sinapi," meaning to hurt or sting, and I thought, "Isn't that the truth!" It takes work to plant, to turn up the soil, remove the weeds, plant the seed then water and care for it as it grows. It's time consuming but, in the end, it is for our enjoyment — not just mine but all those that see it! The green leaves blow weightlessly in the wind. Its trunk stands strong and immovable. Then there are all the benefits we do not see that it was made to provide for us like oxygen, shade and shelter for God's creatures. And it all began with a tiny little seed.

"Do not despise these small beginnings, for the Lord rejoices to see it begin" (Zechariah 4:10). What are the tasks before you? It may seem like work and you may wonder if it's worth it, but if you think of the end result in mind, I bet it makes you smile. Matthew 13:31 also says, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed ..." Put your faith in Jesus and rest in His promise that nothing is impossible for the Supreme Divinity. Phillipians 1:6: He who begun a good work in you will bring it to completion. When you are faithful in your part, He will bring it to its desired end for all that is needed is already there.

We are booking summer 5 Day Clubs now! If you'd like to host one at your home or camp, we will send the crew to teach it.

Honouring those who fought for our freedom

By Jo-Anne Procter

Stonewall's Royal Canadian Legion Branch #52 celebrated the 79th anniversary of D-Day last Sunday with a great sense of honour and reverence.

The memorial was marked by a short solemn march led by the 303 Anavets Pipe Band followed by the colour party, the 301 Alan McLeod V.C. Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron, dignitaries and the local Scouts.

Legion members, friends and families gathered indoors due to the weather to honour and pay tribute to the brave soldiers who landed on Normandy shores in the Second World War.

Following a scripture reading and hymns led by Legion Chaplain James Bardsley, family members and dignitaries laid wreaths in front of the stage to commemorate those lost in battle, acknowledging the impact that war has had not only on its victims but also on their families.

These actions serve as an expression of gratitude for all servicemen and women who have dedicated themselves to preserving our way of life — one which we often take for granted without considering all those who have contributed unimaginable sacrifices throughout history.

Rosser council news in brief

By Jennifer McFee

The RM of Rosser was put under a boil water advisory from May 31 to June 3.

Test results from routine water samples taken on May 30 showed the presence of total coliform bacteria in the town's treated water supply.

To ensure public health protection, residents and businesses were advised to bring water to a rolling boil for at least one minute before using it to drink, make ice, prepare beverages, prepare food and brush teeth.

On Saturday, June 3, the RM received a letter from Dr. Karen Robinson, medical officer of health for Interlake-Eastern Regional Health Authority, indicating that the boil water advisory was rescinded. Regional drinking water officer Amanda Fewings had advised her that Rosser's water system met all the conditions for rescinding the boil water advisory, and bacteriological tests met regulatory standards.

As a result, residents could resume normal water usage on June 3.

The letter is posted on the RM of Rosser website at www.rmofrosser.com.

In other council news:

- The RM of Rosser recognized National Public Works Week from May 21 to May 27 and applauded the dedicated effort of Rosser's public works team, which is essential to providing a high quality of life and well-being for the community.

- At the May 9 meeting, council gave second and third reading to a bylaw to levy taxes for 2023. Coun. Lee Garfinkel was absent from the vote.

- Council gave first reading to a bylaw to provide for administrative and procedural requirements for the application and enforcement of new buildings, occupancy, change of existing buildings and requirements for unsafe buildings.

- The RM entered into a cost-sharing agreement with the City of Winnipeg for traffic signal controls at Brookside Boulevard and Farmer Road/Jefferson Avenue.

- The Redboine Watershed District is running its well-water testing program. Water-testing bottles and instructions are available at the RM of Rosser office.

Vegan handmade market comes to Inwood

By Jennifer McFee

If you're looking for a fun family-friendly event this weekend in the Inwood area, you might want to check out the Ledwich Family Farm Vegan Handmade Market.

The fundraising event is set for Saturday, June 10 from noon to 4 p.m. at the Ledwich Family Farm, located at 103151 Road 4 W in the RM of Armstrong. Entry is available with a $5 donation, and children aged 12 and under are free.

Torrence Ledwich is founder and president of Ledwich Farms, which is a registered non-profit organization that aims to rescue and provide lifelong care to animals in need. The farm animal sanctuary is home to cats, dogs, rabbits, chickens, ducks, turkeys, guinea fowl, goats, pigs, ponies, horses and cows.

She said all proceeds of the fundraiser will go directly to supporting the animals.

"This summer, we are fundraising for our new chicken coop and run, auto-waterers to better animal care, our winter hay costs and general feeding costs," Ledwich said.

"Without community support on the ground or by donations, we struggle with the ability to help more animals and make improvements for the current rescues."

The Vegan Handmade Market will feature handmade children's clothing, handmade soap, Kaye's Muesli Mix, Min and Moon Artwork, Onyx Art prints, The Kitchen Fling baked goods, Misfits Incantra Incense and more. All products at the market are free from animal-derived ingredients.

"We also have our Youth Market Program, which is free for children. Youth make all kinds of treasures and sell them at the market as well," Ledwich added. "Applications are always open for our markets."

The event will also feature a workshop entitled "Butterflies and Helping the Monarchs." For kids, they'll be entertained with hula-hoops and a bouncy castle.

Ledwich Family Farm has taken the Vegan Sanctuary Pledge, which aims to highlight vegan sanctuaries that ascribe to ethical veganism, as well as non-human animal rights and protection.

"There's many benefits that come from a plant-based diet, and initially we started it for health reasons," said Ledwich, who follows a vegan diet along with her husband Chris and their children Hudson and Thatcher.

"There are also environmental benefits and compassionate benefits for animals."

Looking ahead, Ledwich Family Farm will host a fundraising social on July 15 at Sturgeon Heights Community Centre in Winnipeg.

After that, they'll host an annual electronic music festival called Bring Your Love Festival of Arts from Aug. 17 to 21.

For Ledwich, the little wins are the best part of running the animal sanctuary.

"Getting to see progress over time with the animals is amazing. Sometimes it's hard because you need to look at the bigger picture and not in the moment," she said.

"Building relationships takes time, just as it does with people, but it is just as rewarding creating those bonds with animals."

St. Laurent council considers bylaw changes

By Jennifer McFee

St. Laurent residents have the chance to weigh in on a bylaw amendment that would allow travel trailers or RVs on a vacant lot as a temporary use in most zones in the RM.

A public hearing is set for June 21 at 10:30 a.m. in the council chambers (16 Veterans Memorial Rd.).

Reeve Richard Chartrand outlined the origin of the proposed bylaw amendment.

"This RV bylaw was a major concern for ratepayers and was something that all members of current council had when deciding to run during last October's election. It was one of the first bylaws that was reviewed by council in November 2022 and continues to be a priority," he said.

"This council realized that owners of RVs were willing to pay a fee but the current fee structure was expensive. This is also being addressed. While council realize that bylaws will never please 100 per cent of ratepayers, it is beneficial to welcome people to our municipality than to have them leave. It is hopeful that, after this public meeting, council can finally pass this amended bylaw."

Cherie Millar, office administrator for Western Interlake Planning District, said there are already regulations in the zoning bylaw for RVs and travel trailers.

"A public hearing was held on May 17 for proposed amendments to the existing regulations, but during that public hearing, council heard concerns from ratepayers so they decided to amend a couple more items of the bylaw. That is why a second public hearing has to be held," she said.

"Currently, the regulations allow ratepayers to apply for a conditional use permit, but the RM is reducing the annual fees and allowing the RVs for a longer period. They are also restricting RVs and travel trailers to be used as a storage building."

The existing bylaw allows a person to apply to have an RV on a vacant lot or during construction of the main building, and these changes would allow RVs to be on a vacant lot as a temporary use without plans to build.

"The way the existing bylaw is written out now, you would have to have plans to build in order to be approved for an RV on a vacant lot," Millar said.

"These changes will also allow a person to apply to use an RV while constructing a commercial building."

In the last few years, multiple ratepayers have requested to use their travel trailer while building their cottage or home, she added.

"There are other planning districts that allow the use of an RV during construction," she said.

"This provides a washroom facility, an office for a contractor, a place to live temporarily during construction if need be. It can be very helpful, and the RM wants to encourage development."

Anyone who would like more information can contact Millar at 204-646-2615 or wipd@mymts.net.

Richardson donates $15,000 to local fire department

The Richardson Foundation showed its support for the community through a $15,000 donation to the Stonewall Rockwood Fire Department for the field-fire response truck.

Fire chief Darrell Humeniuk expressed appreciation for the contribution.

"The Richardson Foundation gave us a generous grant, which is very appreciated from our side," he said.

"This is going towards one of our new field units. It's a new wildland truck that we're adding to the fleet. This will help us outfit the truck with all the things we need for wildfire situations."

The grant is much appreciated by the fire department, he added.

"It's a really great benefit to us. We have a lot of agricultural area that we cover. In a big wind, you need smaller vehicles that can transport guys with water and backpacks," Humeniuk said, adding that the Richardson Foundation previously provided a grant towards the fire department's purchase of the jaws of life.

"This will outfit our truck, and it releases some of the burden on the taxpayers too. Richardson Foundation is a great organization when it comes to helping out the agricultural community."

The Richardson Foundation helps registered Canadian charitable organizations achieve their goals by providing meaningful funding that will enrich the communities that Richardson Pioneer serves.

"A big focus of the Richardson Foundation is supporting the communities that we operate in. Being involved directly with a project designed to be beneficial to agriculture and community safety seemed like a very natural fit for a foundation donation. This project will allow the Stonewall Rockwood Fire Department to better serve the community in which many of our location employees and customers live," said Bryce Mowat of the Richardson Foundation.

"We look forward to continuing our community focus and encourage anyone to bring forward any potential project that we could be involved with in the Interlake region."

PORK PERSPECTIVES

INVESTING IN THE ONGOING ENHANCEMENT OF ANIMAL CARE

Following 105 Code of Practice requirements and undergoing rigorous assessments through federally recognized quality assurance programs, those who work in the hog sector are committed to maintaining animal health and wellbeing at each stage of life including providing veterinarian and nutritionist attention.

“Right from a young age, I knew that I wanted to work with livestock,” says Andrea Elias, a barn manager from southern Manitoba. “I really love working with the animals and I am really proud of the work we do here. I believe we go the extra mile to make sure they’re comfortable and their wellbeing is maintained, and that is our main goal.”

New quality assurance programs PigCARE and PigSAFE set high standards, backed up by on-farm audits. These audits assess the completion of vital tasks including personnel training, barn maintenance and sanitation, the testing of feed and water supplies, transportation, and other key items. Audits include the ability to assess improvement orders to make necessary changes to operations.

“The thing I enjoy most about this job is just being able to work with the animals every day,” says Andrea. “Seeing pigs from start to finish knowing that we’ve done a good job and that we’ve done our best to make sure they’ve had a good life is my favourite part.”

Those who raise pigs, like Andrea Elias, are vital not only to the long-term success of our sector but are also crucial in ensuring that pigs receive only the best possible care. While this care takes on many forms and is the responsibility of many people, Manitoba’s hog sector is guided by rigorous standards that ensure only safe and nutritious pork makes its way to your table.

Stonewall embraces spirit of Pride and diversity

TRIBUNE PHOTOS BY JO-ANNE PROCTER

On June 1 a rainbow flag was raised at the Town of Stonewall for the month of June which has been designated LGBT Pride Month, a time to celebrate and commemorate the lives, accomplishments, and history of the members of the LGBTQ+ community. Initially the flag had eight colors, however, two were dropped in favor of the six-color flag used today: Red stands for life, Orange is for healing and health, Yellow represents sunshine, Green reflects nature, Blue is standing for peace and harmony, and Purple representing the spirit. Pictured left, community members that celebrated the raising of the flag. Right, members of the Interlake Pride committee, Shauntana Holmes, Tammy Henwood and Mel Woods raise the rainbow flag.

By Jennifer McFee

Stonewall will be bursting with pride with a colourful and inclusive initiative that will brighten the community for the month of June.

Council recently showed its support for raising the Pride flag outside town hall and painting the intersection at Main Street and Centre Avenue in a keyboard pattern showcasing Pride flag colours.

Shauntana Holmes, co-chair of Interlake Pride, expressed excitement for this inclusive initiative.

"This will be the third year we have had the Pride flag raised at town hall in Stonewall. Each year, having this done has been a beautiful sight and very rewarding feeling," she said.

"The flag being raised for the month of June in Stonewall signifies that, although it may be a small town, it's a progressive town with a willingness to learn and accept."

In addition to raising the Pride flag, representatives from Interlake Pride proposed to Stonewall council the idea of also painting the intersection at Main and Centre in Pride flag colours.

"The council members were very welcoming and demonstrated a genuine interest in what we were presenting. When we heard that this and the flag raising were granted, the entire board was elated," Holmes said.

"Having town council agree to these requests really demonstrates that the town embraces the 2SLGBTQ+ community and endorses diversity and inclusion in the town of Stonewall. We are so proud of our town."

Stonewall Mayor Sandra Smith said

she's proud that the entire council voted unanimously in favour of these two initiatives.

"As leaders, it is incredibly important that we support and promote inclusivity in our community," she said.

"We thank Interlake Pride for the important work they are doing in our region to raise awareness and bring support to our youth."

Interlake Pride is mainly centred in Stonewall, and Holmes noted that its goals, supports and openness stretch across the entire Interlake region.

"Interlake Pride came about three years ago when it was apparent there was a need for a Pride Resource for the 2SLGBTQ+ in the Interlake region. It is an entirely volunteer-run organization. There were little resources available outside of the city of Winnipeg in the Interlake, and we could see there was quite a community," she said.

"All current board members originally started on Pride Winnipeg and had received the basis, knowledge, resources and support to get started. The main goal for Interlake Pride has always been to create awareness and safe spaces for all within the Interlake region. Over time, the hope is to have more accessibility in more sections of the region."

Many options are available for anyone who would like to show support for Interlake Pride.

"We are looking to expand our board and committee. We also are looking for volunteers to help run our youth group starting again in the fall and volunteers to assist in fundraising events," Holmes said.

"Those who would be volunteering with Interlake Pride are required to provide a recent criminal reference check and vulnerable sector check prior to beginning. Lastly, Interlake Pride always welcomes monetary donations and business donations."

These donations go directly to the organization to help fund things such as the youth group for food, supplies and more.

Interlake Pride will also be present at Stonewall Quarry Days in August with a booth and in the parade.

In addition, the group will host a fundraising event at the end of summer, with a date to be announced.

Oughton selected No. 1 in MJHL draft

Staff

There were a lot of fantastic players eligible for this year's Manitoba Junior Hockey League draft.

But the most prized pick was an Interlake Lightning.

Noah Oughton, a forward from St. Laurent, was selected No.1 overall by the Winnipeg Freeze in last Sunday's draft in Winnipeg.

"It's an honour. There's a lot of really good players. It's exciting, I'm really looking forward to what's ahead," Oughton said. Oughton, who is 16 years old, admitted it was a stressful time leading up to the draft.

"Taking phone calls and getting outside of my comfort zone before it actually happened," he said. "There was lots of work put in. It was definitely a surprise (going No. 1 overall) but it was definitely exciting."

Oughton scored 10 goals and collected 24 points in 44 regular-season games this past season.

"It's a big step to make that league as a first-year (player)," Oughton said. "Me and my buddies, I thought we had a pretty successful year ... but obviously you always feel that there's more that you can do."

The Freeze are delighted to add Oughton to their organization. Oughton said he will be signing with the club.

"In Noah's case, the person absolutely makes the player. He is an outstanding young man, mature beyond his years, ambitious, focused and determined to be a hockey player," said Freeze head coach and general manager Jay Pylypiuk. "Noah is a big body who uses his size very well. He also possesses a great skillset, hockey IQ and grit that gives him the ability to make plays in tight spaces and under pressure. Something happens every time he touches the puck. He will be a great addition to the Freeze and be a big piece moving forward as we build the program."

It was a great day at the MJHL draft for Lightning players as seven were picked by various teams.

Interlake's other U18 AAA players picked included Gavin Holod, selected fifth overall by the Niverville Nighthawks. The talented forward scored nine goals and had 27 points last season.

"Our scouting staff has been watching Gavin all season and looked at him really closely, so when he was there for us when it was our turn to pick, we were ecstatic," said Nighthawks' head coach and general manager Kelvin Cech.

Blake Farthing, a forward, was selected in the second round, 17th overall by the Steinbach Pistons. Farthing notched 11 goals and 28 points in 40 games.

Talon Hogg, a defenceman, was selected in the third round, third overall by the Swan Valley Stampeders. Hogg tallied three goals and registered 12 points in 2022-23.

Beckham Garchinski was snapped up by the Virden Oil Capitals in the sixth round, 78th overall. The blueliner had a goal and five assists this past season.

Lightning U17 AAA players included Cole Swanson, who was picked in the sixth round, 74th overall, by the Neepawa Titans.

Swanson had a great season, scoring 20 goals and finishing with 33 points. He also played three games as an AP with the U18 Lightning.

Tytan Johnson was picked in the seventh round, 90th overall by the Waywayseecappo Wolverines. He scored five goals and collected 14 points this past season. Johnson also played one game with the U18 Lightning.

Oughton said it was great to see so many Lightning players drafted.

"I think it was pretty awesome because most of the Interlake kids are under the radar so to see that happen, it's a happy day for everyone," he said.

The U13 Interlake Phillies split a pair of doubleheaders last weekend.

Interlake was defeated 11-4 and 10-5 by the Westman Magic on Sunday.

On Saturday, the Phillies zapped the Winnipeg Lightning 11-1 and 17-10.

Interlake is now 7-7 on the season.

The U15 Interlake Phillies were beaten 2-1 and 5-4 by the Manitoba Angels on Sunday to drop their record to 7-3.

In U17 action, Interlake lost 6-4 and 15-3 to the Winnipeg Lightning on Sunday.

The Lightning are now 3-12 in league play.

The U19 Eastman Phillies were swept in a doubleheader by the Smitty's Terminators on Saturday. Smitty's won by scores of 6-3 and 21-11.

Rams' season ends at baseball provincials

By Brian Bowman

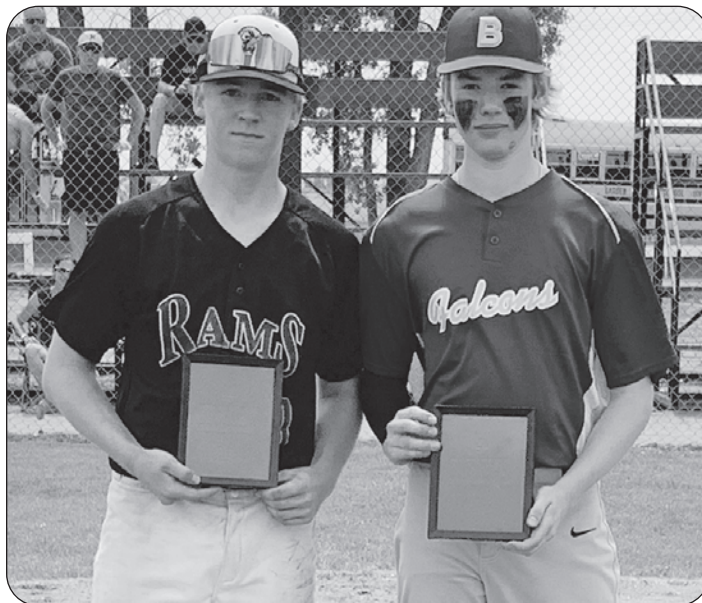

The Stonewall Collegiate Rams' baseball season is now over.

Despite posting a 1-1 record in pool play, Stonewall failed to make the playoffs. The Rams finished third in its three-team pool based on a three-way tiebreaker that goes against runs allowed divided by defensive innings played.

"It's a formula that they put numbers into and we came out on the wrong side of that," said Rams' head coach Cody Benson. "We were definitely in the hardest pool there. All three teams could compete a little bit."

The Rams started the provincials with a tough 10-8 loss to the Birtle/Shoal Lake/Strathclair/Rosburn co-op team. Stonewall built a 5-1 lead and then were up 7-5 late in the game.

"We just couldn't close it out and they kept scratching back," Benson said. "They got hot, they swung it when they had to and we just couldn't hold them down at the end. To be up in that game late and lose it wasn't easy."

TRIBUNE PHOTOS MHSAA

The Stonewall Collegiate Rams' Alex Myers, far left, and Spencer Schaeffer, far right, were named game all stars during pool play at the MHSAA baseball provincials.

Stonewall rebounded nicely from that loss, though, to defeat a Carberry/Cartwright/Baldur/Glenboro co-op team 12-8. The Rams trailed by a whopping eight runs after the first inning before coming back for the wild victory.

"It was our turn to scratch and claw all of the way back, which gave us a chance but we came out on the wrong side of the formula at the end," Benson said.

The Garden City Fighting Gophers won the provincial championship after beating the Boissevain/Wawanesa Broncos 16-12 in the final on Saturday.

Canada's Hofer, two-time world hockey champion

By Ty Dilello

On May 28, Joel Hofer and Team Canada captured the gold medal at the 2023 IIHF World Men's Hockey Championships in Riga, Latvia, and Tampere, Finland, after defeating Germany by a score of 5-2 in the championship final.

Hofer, whose family originates from the Keystone and New Haven Hutterite Colonies, has now won gold medals for Team Canada both times he has represented his country. First, he won the 2020 World Juniors, and now last weekend, he captured the World Men's Hockey Championship.

The 22-year-old goaltender spent the majority of the past season with the AHL's Springfield Thunderbirds, posting a 27-15-5 record to go along with a 2.50 goals-against average, a .921 save percentage and five shut-outs.

Called up to the big leagues late in the season, Hofer joined the St. Louis Blues and promptly became a brick wall in net, with a record of 3-1-1. After Hofer's season ended with the Blues, his name was quickly added to the 2023 IIHF World Championship roster for Team Canada.

The 2023 IIHF World Championships, which ran from May 12 to 28, featured players from 16 countries around the world. The teams were divided into two groups and competed in a preliminary round-robin to determine seeding for the tournament. The top four teams in each group then advanced to the quarterfinals, and they played on from there until the gold medal game.

Hofer played in two games during the tournament for Canada in the round-robin and had a 1-1 record. He first defeated Kazakhstan by a score of 5-1 before losing 3-2 in a shootout to Norway. He was then the backup netminder during the playoff round as he watched from the bench as Canada won three straight medal-round matchups to take home the gold medal.

Hofer will now be returning to the Winnipeg area for some rest and relaxation during the summer before it's time to get into training for the up-

Thunder edged by Mustangs

Staff

The Interlake Thunder varsity girls' football team is getting closer and closer to earning a victory.

Interlake was edged 25-24 by the St. Vital Mustangs in a game that was called due to darkness last Thursday in Stonewall.

"Our goal was to maintain our compete throughout the game and we absolutely accomplished that," said Thunder head coach Joel McDonald in an email. "Our girls got after it from the opening kickoff right down to the last play when the game was called due to officials believing it was too dark."

The Thunder continue to improve on the football field.

"As far as our play, we still have lots to learn and mistakes to clean up but because the girls kept their heads in the game and battled so hard, we were able to have some success on both sides of the ball with lots of first downs and timely scores for our offence and our defence consistently holding them to three and outs and had some big stops," McDonald said.

"We still have a long way to go but with how hard working and focused the girls and coaches are I am confident we will continue to improve with every week."

Interlake will host the Falcons Football Club this Thursday (7 p.m.) at Stonewall Collegiate.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Barry attended school in Teulon and graduated in 1979. After high school he started his carpentry career with Bill Reynolds out of Balmoral. After working with several crews and partners, he went on to establish his own business, Enberg Carpentry.

Barry was a sports enthusiast who played several sports including baseball, hockey, and broomball. He coached youth baseball, junior co-ed broomball, and at age 18 was president of the Inwood Sports Club. As a player, he started the Hillside Rebels co-ed broomball team and was an original member of the Inwood Invaders men's hockey team, both starting in the 1979-80 season.

The summertime was fastball with the Teulon Reds (1978-91) and co-ed slow pitch with the Teulon Inmates, starting in 1992. Other hobbies included raising exotic birds, fishing, and camping.

Barry was a partner with the group that bought the Inwood golf course in 1989 from John Olsen. His partners included his brother Wayne, Frank Thorkelson and Ed Waluk.

During the 2nd season of 1990, Barry was diagnosed as bipolar, a disorder he would battle with the rest of his life. He then stepped away from the golf course to focus on his carpentry career.

As Barry battled his disorder, he was lucky to be surrounded by many friends and family members who were there to help him along his journey. Barry kept working up to the time of his death on May 22, 2023.

Barry lived life the way he wanted to, adventure after adventure. If he wasn't herding bison across the slough on a snowmobile to help a friend, he was expanding his many properties. He was man of simple pleasures. He loved country music and bonfires with friends and family.

Any one who knew Barry enjoyed his company. His natural charm and conversation were always welcome.

Barry's legacy will live on with every beautiful house, shop or cabin he built through the Interlake as well as in the memories of everyone who loved him.

A graveside service will be held at Norris Lake Cemetery on Thursday, June 15, 2023 at 1:30 pm, with lunch to follow at Inwood Community Hall. Be at peace brother.

OBITUARY

Mary Ann Margaret Pull
(nee Good)

It is with sadness we announce the peaceful passing of our Mum and Nama, Mary Ann on May 31, 2023.

Born Feb 1 1939, Mary Ann was raised on the farm in Balmoral along with her 7 siblings and her parents John and Evelyn (Vincent) Good. Mary Ann is survived by her daughter Brenda (Roche), son-in-law Denis Woods, grandchildren Charla (Andy) Harmsen, Brady (Ashley) Woods, Rylee Woods (Joel Downey). Her great grandchildren Brynn, Halle, Emmett, Owen, Kohl, Paige, Cameron, and Chelsea. Her siblings Don (Sylvia) Good, Kitty Stewart, Gloria (Jim) Ackland. Brother-in-law Ed (Marie) Pull. As well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, and good friends.

Mum was predeceased by her husband Ron, her parents John and Evelyn, and her great grandson BJ Woods. Her siblings Lionel (Eleanor), Sam (Beryl), Jack (Pat), Enid (Reg) Coburn, brother-in-law Glenn Stewart, as well as many other family and friends.

In their retirement, my parents were able to travel lots and enjoyed camping with Charla, Brady, and Rylee. Travel continued after the passing of Ron to various places including Mexico, Arizona, Alberta and BC.

Mum was an Honorary Life Member of the Stonewall Legion Branch #52 serving on the executive in different capacities including President. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary for over 50 years.

Mum had a passion for curling. She was a life member of the Stonewall Curling Club. She proudly cheered on Brenda, many nieces, nephews, Manitoban and Canadian teams, and attended numerous World Curling Championships both in Canada and overseas.

Over the last few years the beginnings of dementia set in and in May 2021, Mum became a resident of Rosewood Lodge which was an adjustment for us all, but she enjoyed the other residents and staff. She especially enjoyed the music and entertainment and did not hesitate to have a dance when she could find a partner. Mum was happy when her sister Kitty became a resident and "The Sisters" spent many hours together; it was a two for one deal when you went for a visit.

A funeral was held on Tuesday June 6, 2023 at the Stonewall Legion Hall. We wish to express our gratitude to the nurses and staff at Rosewood Lodge and Stonewall Hospital for their love and care of our Mum and Nama.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in her memory to the Alzheimer Society or Rosewood Lodge.
