Brivnica Co Barbershop in the giving spirit

Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes available for pick up until mid November

By Autumn Fehr

Brooke (Rogoza) Krasnesky's road to being a hair-stylist has not always been easy, but her business, Brivnica Co The Barbershop Company, shows what hard work and perseverance can do.

The young stylist started her professional career a decade ago and hasn't stopped for a second to give up on her dream, even when things got tough.

In 2017, when she was 18, she went to the Salon Professional Academy in Winnipeg. Shortly after that, her grandpa died on her birthday, and she was diagnosed with rheumatoid arthritis in her knees and ankles, which made it hard to stand.

"It was a pretty hard go trying to get through school," said Krasnesky.

Since she graduated, Krasnesky has always been out on her own, pursuing her career in hairstyling.

In May 2022, she opened her business, renting off Deb's Hair Design on the corner of the street, and when she and her husband got married in May, they decided to upgrade their building and got 312 Main St.

But Krasnesky's ideas and aspirations for her career haven't stopped — she is looking to give back to a community she feels has given so much to her.

And that's a part of why she loves doing what she does. Krasnesky says her favourite thing about owning her own business and cutting hair, in general, is how she can help others.

"It's the satisfaction you get of making somebody happy," she said.

Krasnesky wants to give back in a bigger way this Christmas season through her initiative, Christmas shoeboxes for charity and a special potluck with gifts and free haircuts on Christmas Eve.

Krasnesky was raised in faith, which plays a huge part into her giving heart.

Photos of a few of the cuts that Krasnesky has done.

"Growing up, giving back and whatnot, always thanking God. If it weren't for God, I wouldn't be here and where I am right now."

This year, the couple have decided to support Samaritan's Purse for Operation Christmas Child.

Krasnesky ordered a bunch of shoeboxes so other children who come in the barbershop can pick up a shoebox and fill it up for another child. The deadline to fill the shoeboxes is the second week of November.

"It's filling a hole in your heart by giving to people that don't have as much as you have," she said.

The other way Krasnesky hopes to give back to the community this Christmas is through a fundraiser through GoFundMe that will raise funds to provide a potluck on Christmas Eve for the community at the barbershop.

If she and her husband Austin can raise enough, they also want to use the money to get Christmas gifts and wrap them to give to the children in Stonewall.

To make these dreams a reality, they are hoping to raise $5,000 to $10,000 before the week prior to Christmas Eve. Krasnesky will also be offering free haircuts that day.

"One day, I was just sitting in the shop and felt called in my heart to do a GoFundMe for the shop, for the shop to give back to the community," she said.

She said she still wants to provide free haircuts if they cannot raise all the funds but hopes that they can do it for the community.

"It's home. ... The community is important to me, growing up here. A lot of my clients are people I went to school with or their parents, their grandparents or their kids. Their family. You know these people, and you have your heart for them,

Teulon Rockwood Centennial Centre damaged

By Autumn Fehr

For the past 40 years, the Teulon Rockwood Centennial Centre, located at 14 Main St., has been a place where the community gathers.

Last week, the hall was damaged by a car accident. A vehicle impacted the north side of the building near Beach Road, pushing in the exterior wall. The town has barricades currently in place outside where the damage occurred.

The crash damage has affected the inside and rendered the building unusable.

Ryan Trombo, chief of the Teulon Fire Department, said fire crews were not called to the scene when the accident occurred.

The hall is currently closed until further notice. Any events being hosted are to be rescheduled or cancelled.

Balmoral fundraiser will feature beer, music and prizes

By Jennifer McFee

A fundraising evening is about to take flight in Balmoral.

On Saturday, Nov. 4, the Balmoral Community Hall is hosting a Flight Night Fundraiser from 7:30 p.m. to midnight.

All proceeds will go towards the ongoing operation and continuous improvement of the community hall.

"This is our first fundraiser in a couple years at least, so it's an important event for us," said Doug Carter, who serves on the Balmoral Community Hall board with his wife Lisa.

"We've recently done a bunch of renovations, so it's looking nicer and fresher. The facility is quite a bit improved, which is exciting, but we also need to replenish the coffers a little bit now."

The fundraising event will feature door prizes, a 50/50 draw and a cash bar featuring craft beers by Good Neighbour Brewing and Kilter Brewing Company. For non-beer drinkers, there will be options of a cider, a non-alcoholic beer, canned soda and water.

"It's an opportunity to get quarter-servings of eight beers and one cider. You can pick your poisons to try out and then you can buy full beers once you're happy with the choice — or keep drinking small ones," Carter said.

"There's going to be a warm snack provided by Lavender Farms that is included in admission. There will also be additional food available for purchase."

A live band called Heartsleeve will entertain the crowds, featuring Gareth McNichol-Briggs on banjo and lead vocals, Mike Chaput on bass and vocals, Greg Fehr on guitar and vocals, Mike Erb on mandolin and pedal steel and Ryan Woods on drums.

"It's folk music turned upside down. We all come from different genres and backgrounds, like our bass player really likes funk music and soul music, our drummer likes jazz and I'm a metal head. There's more to music than just sound — there's the feeling and all these other aspects," said McNichol-Briggs, who teaches music classes in Teulon.

"We have fun and enjoy what we're playing — and we want people to enjoy what we're playing too. We're definitely not stuck in one genre. I feel like we're five different misfits that all work together. We really enjoy doing it. I hope people leave feeling filled up and warm."

As for the Balmoral Community Hall board, they also hope that attendees will enjoy the outing.

"We're really hoping for a good turnout. This is a chance for people to come out and be reacquainted with the facility," Carter said.

"We also have new families who have moved into the area, and some of them might never have set foot in the hall. We're hoping they will come have a look and have a fun evening."

Tickets cost $20 each and are available by contacting Doug Carter at 204-461-0489 or Lisa Carter at 204-461-4046.

Kin Club completes project

TRIBUNE PHOTO BY JO-ANNE PROCTER

Stonewall Kinsmen members were busy laying bricks last week at the splash pad, next to Kinsmen Lake. Phase 2 consists of the picnic shelter being built, the benches being installed and, most importantly, the laying of the bricks from the sponsorship campaign. The sponsorship bricks are interspersed along a paved path so that they are prominently featured. This fundraising campaign is still underway, and bricks (8"x8") can still be purchased for $100. Information is available on the Stonewall Kin website at www.stonewallkin.com. The splash pad is a gift to the community from the Stonewall Kinsmen and Kinettes and has brought much joy to youngsters and their families since it opened in 2021.

New appointments to MPI board announced

Submitted by the Manitoba government

The Manitoba government has appointed a new board of directors for Manitoba Public Insurance (MPI) in an effort to resume services and return financial accountability to the Crown corporation, Justice Minister Matt Wiebe, minister responsible for MPI, announced last week.

"We are acting quickly to appoint a proven team of leaders dedicated to setting a new direction and preserving our public auto insurance model," said Wiebe. "There is a clear need for oversight, accountability and a new relationship with employees, and I am confident that this board has the experience and ability to find that ground."

MPI's 1,700 employees have been on strike since Aug. 28 and an overhaul of the corporation's technology systems has nearly tripled in cost to nearly $300 million, said the minister. The organization is also currently undergoing an external organizational review, noted Wiebe.

The new board of directors will be chaired by Carmen Nedohin, former chairperson of the Manitoba Liquor Control Commission and a former Manitoba Hydro board member. Nedohin will be supported by several former MPI employees as well as labour and community leaders, and experts in asset management, information technology and actuarial science.

The board's top priority will be to resolve the current strike with an agreement that is both fair to employees and responsible to Manitoba ratepayers, noted Wiebe.

"I am excited to start working with the board and want to thank all members for accepting this responsibility," said Wiebe. "This board will stay on top of operations and provide the oversight required to return MPI to its once great status as a leader in the field providing Manitobans with affordable insurance."

NEW BOARD MEMBERS ARE:

Carmen Nedohin (chair) – Winnipeg chapter president, Canadian Association of Retired Persons; lay bencher, Law Society of Manitoba; former chairperson, Manitoba Liquor Control Commission; former Manitoba Hydro board member.

Gina McKay – president, Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) Manitoba; CUPE regional vice-president for Manitoba; executive vice-president of the Manitoba Federation of Labour; equity vice-president – 2SLGBTQI+, Canadian Labour Congress; proud queer and Métis labour leader.

Luke Johnston – vice-president and chief risk officer, Manitoba Blue Cross; former chief actuary and vice-president, product and risk management at MPI.

Candy Wong – portfolio manager, international strategies, environmental, social and governance (ESG) and risk management, Civil Service Superannuation Board of Manitoba.

Fran Frederickson – former school trustee; former board member, Manitoba Liquor and Lotteries; former insurance broker; former MPI employee specializing in instructional design.

Marilyn McLaren – former president and CEO, Manitoba Public Insurance; former board chair, United Way Winnipeg; former board chair, Harvest Manitoba.

JD Devgan – MLA for McPhillips; former director of government and community engagement, University of Manitoba; former vice-president, Sikh Society of Manitoba.

Diane Roussin (returning member) – dedicated community leader working to protect the rights of Indigenous families; proud member of Skownan First Nation.

Christian Dandeneau – co-founder and CEO of ID Fusion, an Indigenous-owned company; member of the federal external advisory committee on regulatory competitiveness; proud of his francophone Métis heritage.

MPI administers the Drivers and Vehicles Act on behalf of the Manitoba government and provides driver licensing and vehicle registration functions under the act. Its primary purpose is to administer the basic compulsory, universally available auto insurance program. MPI also offers optional expanded-benefits auto insurance for all Manitobans and auto insurance for fleets based in Manitoba. This year, its 50th year in operation, MPI administered more than 1.25 million policies and handled more than 260,000 claims.

Open house events focus on Plan20-50

Staff

All are welcome to attend upcoming public open house events that focus on Plan20-50.

Winnipeg Metropolitan Region is mandated through the provincial government's Planning Act and the Capital Planning Region Regulation to adopt a regional plan bylaw.

This long-term regional plan, called Plan20-50 will provide a blueprint for a sustainable and globally competitive Winnipeg Metro Region, which is made up of Winnipeg and 18 surrounding municipalities — including Stonewall, Rockwood, Rosser, Selkirk, Dunnottar, St. Andrews and more.

The first open house will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 1 at Norwood Hotel (112 Marion St.) in Winnipeg.

The next one will be on Tuesday, Nov. 7 at the Quarry

Park Heritage Arts Centre (293 Main St.) in Stonewall.

The third open house will be on Thursday, Nov. 9 at Centre TC Energy Centre (1 Rivard St.) in Île-des-Chênes.

For these open house events, there will be a morning session from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. as well as an evening session from 5 to 7 p.m. — each with the same information on display.

The Winnipeg Metropolitan Planning Region's planning team will be available to collect feedback and answer questions.

Anyone who isn't able to attend the sessions in person can provide online feedback about the regional plan at 20to50.ca from Nov. 1 to Dec. 17. A copy of the plan is available for download as well. For more information, email info@wm-region.ca or call 204-989-2048.

worship Hear Jesus

with us > FAITH

As I sat down to write my article this week, I felt very unsure about what it should be about. The more that I thought, the more that I realized this: God's words will always be better than mine. So this week, rather than a short passage from Scripture and then some of my thoughts on it, hear the words of Jesus Christ from the book of John, Chapter 3.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God."

Come to the Light today; come to Jesus. His offer of life is far greater than anything that the darkness of the world can offer you. In His love for us, He died to pay the penalty our sins deserve so that we could be made right with God. He simply calls us to hear, repent and believe. Do that today and live.

Stonewall council news in brief

By Jennifer McFee

Watch your speed — council passed second and third readings to amend the reduced speed zone by-law.

Now all roadways in Quarry Park will have a speed limit of 20 kilometres per hour all year round.

IN OTHER COUNCIL NEWS:

- Council passed second and third readings to amend a bylaw related to municipal bylaw enforcement to now include a new firearms bylaw.
- CJ Butcher would like to expand his skate sharpening and pro shop business at Veterans Memorial Sports Complex. The mayor and CAO will execute a lease agreement between the town and CJ Butcher for the expanded space.

- The mayor and CAO will execute a memorandum of understanding with the RM of Rockwood to provide emergency action in support of each other when affected or threatened by a peacetime emergency.

- The town will restrict parking on Dec. 1 for the Annual Stonewall Chamber Festival of Lights Parade. Lessons from a legend ... learning with Kurt Browning

By Joshua Frey-Sam

It's not every day you meet one of your idols, much less spend a whole day with them.

Such was the case for three of Stonewall's brightest young figure skaters — Cameron Nesbitt, Gaia Turner and Lacey Learning — who twirled, jumped and carved their way around the ice with four-time world champion Kurt Browning on Oct. 14.

It was an eight-hour affair, as Browning — who the girls know best for his time in Stars on Ice — critiqued a group of sprouting talent, shared some words of wisdom with each skater and their parents and even showed off a few moves of his own to remind everyone he's still got it at 57 years old.

Gaia Turner, 11, has been figure skating for three years and said she wants to compete in the Olympics one day.

TRIBUNE PHOTOS SUBMITTED

Cameron Nesbitt, left, Lacey Learning, middle, and Gaia Turner learned from legendary Canadian figure skater Kurt Browning (middle) on Oct. 14.

"It was really fun," said Nesbitt, 15. "He has a very bubbly personality so he was able to make everything fun. We were doing some really simple things like cross-cuts and he made them interesting. He gave lots of tips on how to make them better and he also just said, 'You don't have to do this in your normal skating but it's just a way to make your skating better.'"

"He understood that not everybody is going to listen to exactly what he says."

Nesbitt, who was born into a family of skaters — her dad and brother on the hockey rink and her mom a fellow figure skater — relished the opportunity to pick Browning's brain.

"He told us a bit about what he did before competitions or before he went and skated. One of the things he did was he would find a clear spot on the ice and he would do six inside edges and try his best to line them all on top of each other, and it really just helped his mind prepare and get going. That was really interesting to try and hear about," she said.

The trio, who all skate out of the Stonewall Skating Club twice a week, each took away something different from the seminar.

"We did a lot of yoga and cardio and we did a lot of skating with Kurt," said Turner, 11. "We did a lot of footwork that he's famous for. He showed us a triple-axel and then we did some jumps and spins."

Though Turner did not attempt to replicate Browning's triple-axel jump, she did pick up some tips on how to sharpen her own axel.

Turner is just in her third year of figure skating, having laced up skates for hockey in her younger years. But it wasn't long before she found herself longing for a crack at figure skating.

"I saw a bunch of figure skaters and I just kept doing spins during hockey practice so then my mom kind of just led me to figure skating," she said. "I love it, so much more than hockey."

Meanwhile, Learning was able to take away some tips as a skater and a teacher. The 11-year-old is in just her third year of figure skating but is already paying it forward through the local CanSkate program, which works with children ages three to 12 on improving their skating.

"It was a really fun day. I didn't know what to expect but Kurt was a very kind and normal person," Learning said. "Kurt taught me to focus on perfecting the little things like keeping your head up and smiling and standing up straighter."

During an off-ice portion of the seminar, Browning hosted a Q and A with the group of moms in attendance. Much of his message focused on protecting the girls' mental health as they continue in the sport.

Browning emphasized the importance of each skater forgiving themselves for their mistakes on the ice and not focusing on what they can't do but rather on what they can do.

Certainly, it's something Nesbitt, Turner and Learning will need to keep in mind as they each expect to be on the ice for a long time.

"I've been doing it long enough that I really enjoy it, but also I would always love to get up to a high competitive level, but even if I can't do that, I just love to go out and skate every week," Nesbitt said.

Learning added: "I mean, there's no (real good) way to explain it. I just really like the feeling of being on the ice."

Turner concluded: "I just love skating with my friends and doing new things every time with my coaches," she said. "I'm not sure if it'll come true but I really want to go to the Olympics."

Blastomycosis:

Blastomycosis is a potentially deadly disease that is caused by a fungus found in damp soil where mold is present. This fungus likes wet or damp areas near swamps and lakes. While it is possible for cats to get, dogs (and humans) who spend a lot of time in areas such as these are most at risk.

A dog can get Blastomycosis simply by inhaling the fungus that is hidden in the soil. The fungus travels to the lungs and can then spread to the rest of the body.

MOST COMMON SYMPTOMS

- Loss of appetite
- Coughing
- Difficulty breathing
- Fever
- Weight loss
- Blindness and other eye problems
- Draining skin lesions

PREVALENT LOCATIONS

In Manitoba, the Seine River, Whiteshell, and Lake of the Woods are areas that are highly associated with Blastomycosis.

PREVENTION

Unfortunately, the only method of prevention is to avoid the fungus. If you frequent the areas mentioned above with your pets, try to keep them from digging and sniffing around the ground.

- If you suspect your pet has contracted Blastomycosis, it is very important for them to see a veterinarian to confirm a diagnosis and start treatment right away.

Rams, Wildcats begin WHSHL seasons

Staff

The Collège Stonewall Collegiate Rams started their Winnipeg High School Hockey League Platinum Division regular season with a pair of losses last week.

On Friday, the Rams were defeated 6-5 by the Westwood Warriors in overtime in Stonewall. The Rams led 4-1 in the third period.

Stonewall goals were scored by Gavin Holod (three), Adam Newcombe and Evan Deprez. Newcombe and Evan Reimer each had two assists in the game.

Shae Guarino (two), Cole Warsaba, Carter Kjartson, Noah Curtis and Madden Parnell replied for Westwood.

Last Thursday, the Rams were beaten 4-1 by the Sturgeon Heights Huskies at the Keith Bodley Arena.

Newcombe scored for Stonewall in the third period.

Sturgeon Heights grabbed a 3-0 lead on goals from Gage Parnell, Benjamin McLean, and Wyatt Gallagher.

The Huskies' Brady Thorsteinson then added a third-period goal.

Stonewall played Vincent Massey on Monday but no score was available.

The Rams will then take on the River

East Kodiaks on Oct. 31 at the Gateway Recreation Centre. Puck drop is 4:30 p.m.

The Warren Collegiate Wildcats, meanwhile, dropped a pair of WHSHL Price Division games last week.

Last Wednesday, Warren was defeated 6-4 by the Kildonan East Reivers at the Terry Sawchuk Memorial Arena.

Quinn McKnight led the Wildcats with two goals and two assists while Dylan Ridell added a goal and an assist.

Conaly Chrusch also scored for Warren. The Wildcats' Colton Bruce and Owen Shymko each had two assists.

Kildonan East goals came from Jace Boyd (two), Adam Frick, Eston Katcher, Kingston Asmundson and Josh Kizyck.

On Oct. 17, Warren was edged 2-1 by the Louis-Riel Voyageurs.

The Wildcats' goal was scored by Shymko in the third period while Sesha Petrak and Nicolas Krindle replied for the Voyageurs.

Warren had its home opener on Monday against Windsor Park and then will host Murdoch MacKay on Friday (4 p.m.) at the South Interlake Recreation Centre.

Jets lose to the Charleswood Hawks

Staff

The Stonewall Jets were defeated 9-2 by the Charleswood Hawks at the Eric Coy Arena in Manitoba Major Junior Hockey League action last Friday.

Karson King scored both Jets' goals.

Ryland Hueging (three), Logan Danis (two), Matt Carlson, Ben Zander, Tazio Cianflone and Cam McDonald replied for the Hawks.

Stonewall was 1-for-10 on the power play while Charleswood was 4-for-14.

This past Tuesday, Stonewall hosted the Ft. Garry/Ft. Rouge Twins but no score was available.

The Jets will visit the River East Royal Knights on Friday (7:30 p.m.) and the Raiders Jr. Hockey Club Sunday (2 p.m.).

Caners attends soccer trials in Germany

By Brian Bowman

Many people refer to Stony Mountain as a hockey town.

But one local resident is making his mark in a different sport — soccer.

Ethan Caners recently attended soccer trials and showcases in Germany. Teams he trained with included Bell-Mendig, Andernach and FC Nurnberg.

It's not every day someone from Stony Mountain heads to Germany for soccer.

"I'm in an agency called E & E (Sports Management)," said Caners, who attended Stonewall Collegiate, earlier this month. "The goal is to place soccer players from universities and colleges from Manitoba. It's the highest-rated academy in the prairies and I landed a spot on it. The top four from our travel team were invited to Germany to do trials out there from teams in Division 7 to (Division) 2. It's very high level when it comes to the grand scheme of things."

Caners travelled with a few teams when he was in Germany. The competition out there was very stiff, he said, even in the lower divisions.

"It was very surreal being on the field, which is like Investors Group, yet it's nowhere near the level of it," Caners said. "I feel like soccer out there is way more known than here. That went well and the coaches offered us on the spot after the training. We all impressed very well so after that we went to a higher division team, which I believe is the 4th Division."

That was a different experience for Caners as that team was very competitive, he said.

"Everybody was fighting for a spot there and we had a few players show up and a few not," Caners said. "Personally, I had a great session and later on that day I got an offer from the coaching but financially it does not make sense for me to go. Everybody was just amazing and they all know English out there, which was pretty shocking to me. It was a whole two-hour session, shooting drills, passing drills, overall stamina, stuff like that, so the coaches were really impressed with us."

Aside from training, Caners had an opportunity to be among 60,000 fans to watch a soccer game.

"That was for the bottom team in the league," he said, noting that Canadians were very welcomed by the Germans. "It was pretty crazy."

U18 AAA male Lightning post 1-2 record last weekend

The Interlake Lightning's Tytan Johnson looks to clear the puck from goaltender Alex Myers' zone. The Lightning played Eastman Friday night in Teulon.

Staff

The U18 AAA Interlake male Lightning lost 6-4 to the Southwest Cougars on Sunday afternoon.

Interlake goals were scored by Blake Farthing (two), Mason Munday and Drew Russell.

Sebastian Stone (two), Ryder Heaphy, Kelby Diehl, Jack Clark and Bryan Lang answered with goals for the Cougars.

On Saturday evening, Interlake was defeated 5-3 by Southwest.

Cole Swanson led the Lightning with a goal and an assist while Jake Keryluk and Ryder Kirk also tallied.

Southwest, which led 3-1 after the first period and 4-2 after two frames, received goals from Drew Shiels, Stone, Nate Robson, Clark and Jackson Hofer.

Last Friday, the Lightning edged the Eastman Selects 3-2 in Teulon.

Farthing and Keryluk scored first-period goals for Interlake and then Russell tallied in the second.

Luc De Gagne scored both Eastman goals.

Alex Myers made 39 saves for the win.

Interlake, now 5-4 and tied for fifth place in the 12-team league with Eastman, will host the Winnipeg Bruins on Friday (7:30 p.m.) and then the two teams will hook up again the following day at the Southdale Community Centre. Puck drop is 4 p.m.

In Manitoba Female Hockey League U18 AAA action, the Interlake Lightning were shut out 5-0 by the Westman Wildcats on Sunday in Stonewall.

Westman goals were scored by Paige Crossley (two), Reese Schutte (two) and Ivy Perkin.

On Saturday, Westman defeated Interlake 4-3 in overtime.

Brooke Cyr, Emily Gagne and Claire Hudson scored for the Lightning.

Wildcats' goals were tallied by Crossley, Hallie Franklin, Callie Hilhorst and Kelsey Huibers.

Interlake will play the Balmoral Hall Blazers this Sunday (2:45 p.m.) at the Hockey For All Centre.

Mercs double Bombers to begin SEMHL season

Staff

The Warren Mercs started the 72nd season of the South Eastern Manitoba Hockey League with a 4-2 home win over the Morden Bombers last Saturday.

Morden's Jayden Townsend and Warren's Dexter Kuczek traded first-period goals.

The Mercs' Chase Faulkner notched a power-play goal in the second period and then Faulkner gave Warren a 3-1 lead early in the third.

Morden's Sven Scheffer scored to make it a one-goal game at the eight-minute mark of the final frame but Warren's Braydon MacDonald closed out the scoring with an empty-net goal.

The Mercs' Patrick D'Amico had two assists in the game.

Mitch Adamyk made 21 saves for the win.

Warren will visit the Portage Islanders on Nov. 4. Puck drop is 7:15 p.m.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

WHY CLASSIFIEDS WORK

Classifieds are inexpensive.

This is perhaps the biggest advantage of using this form of advertising. Payment is generally based on the number of words or the lines of copy used in the ad. Given the low cost, you can actually run an entire series of classifieds ads. The inexpensive nature of the ad means you can reach out to your prospects on a regular basis without breaking your bank account.

Classifieds are great for generating leads.

You invite them to contact you by phone, mail, or e-mail, etc. When the contact is made, you simply follow-up with a sales call or email.

Classifieds can be used for local and regional audiences.

It's been said that the classified is the one tool that allows the little guy (or gal) to be more competitive. It enables the small businessperson to reach his or her audience on a small budget, no matter where they live.

CARD OF THANKS

SORENSEN – We, the family of Betty Sorenson, would like to extend our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to our family, friends, and neighbours for your many acts of kindness and support over the last number of months. We are thankful for all the visits you made to see Mom, whether it was while she was at home or later when in the hospital. Mom enjoyed every one of them. Thank you for the cards, flowers, phone calls and memories of mom you shared with us. You made this very difficult time a little easier.

We again want to thank Dr. Hicks, the nursing staff, the health care aids and all the support staff at the Stonewall Hospital for the amazing care provided to Mom during her stay. You were always very caring and helped us navigate through a very difficult time.

Special thanks to Rev Mary Best and Ken Loehmer for their guidance and the wonderful Celebration of Life service. Thank you to Brenda and Glenn Tully, for managing the lunch, and the community members that helped.

Thanks to all who made donations in memory of Mom to the Meadow Lea United Church, South West District Palliative Care, and/or CancerCare.
Your kindness will never be forgotten.

-Ted and Gail, Shirl and Jim,
Elaine, Karen,
Cheryl, Diane and Blair
and our families

Don't forget to send your special words of remembrance for loved ones passed.
